

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE 5

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY 7

QUOTES ON CIVIL SOCIETY/GOVERNMENT COOPERATION 8

1 CSOs, PEACEBUILDING AND THE POWER OF PARTNERSHIPS C. Barnes 11

- 1.1 Civil society: more than NGOs 11
- 1.2 CSO roles at different stages of the conflict cycle 13
- 1.3 Partnerships for peace 14

2. GOVERNMENTS AND CSOS: COMPLEXITY OF ENGAGEMENT C. Barnes 16

- 2.1 Foreign and domestic: complex relationships & levels of analysis 16
- 2.2 CSOs and governments: cooperation, co-optation, and confrontation 17

3. POLICY DEVELOPMENT AND LEGISLATIVE PROCESSES 20

- 3.1 Introduction 20
C. Barnes
- 3.2 Japan: Ministry of Foreign Affairs and NGO Joint Public Forum Series 21
M. Joyce, Peace Boat
- 3.3 Germany: Working Group on Development and Peace 24
N. Zupan, FriEnt
- 3.4 Mongolia: Blue Banner cooperation with Mongolian government 27
J. Enksaikhan, Blue Banner

4. CIVILIAN CRISIS RESPONSE, VIOLENCE PREVENTION AND PEACEBUILDING 30

- 4.1 Introduction 30
C. Barnes
- 4.2 United States: Government and civil society collaboration for peacebuilding 31
C. Dambach, Alliance for Peacebuilding
- 4.3 EU: The EU-NGO relationship in peacebuilding – The role of civil society process 35
P. Bartholmé, European Peacebuilding Liaison Office

5. NATIONAL INFRASTRUCTURES FOR RESPONDING TO CONFLICT 37

- 5.1 Government structures 37
C. Barnes
- 5.2 Kenya: Towards the national policy on peace building and conflict management 38
G. Kut, Nairobi Peace Initiative – Africa
- 5.3 Ghana: Developing an institutional framework for sustainable peace: UN, government and civil society collaboration for conflict prevention 46
E. Bombande, West Africa Network for Peacebuilding
- 5.4 Nepal: Ministry of Peace and Reconstruction: a foundation for peace 55
M. Thapa, Asian Study Center for Political & Conflict Transformation

5.5	Kyrgyzstan: Creating a space for dialogue and cooperation between the state and civil society: violent conflict prevention, 2004-2005	61
	H. Heyer, Foundation for Tolerance International
5.6	Germany: the German government Action Plan for Civilian Crisis Prevention, CR and Post conflict PB & interface between state and non state actors	68
	U. Hegener, independent consultant
5.7	Germany: Funding civilian conflict resolution	72
	P. Mares, zivik/ifa
6.	UN: EFFECTIVE PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN THE UN, MEMBER STATES AND CIVIL SOCIETY TO PROMOTE HUMAN SECURITY	74
	D. Wolter, Deputy Ambassador of Germany in Saudi Arabia
6.1	The context of UN/Government/CSO cooperation in the area of human security	74
6.2	The Global Partnership	75
6.3	The challenges of operationalising human security through effective UN/ Government/ CSO Partnerships	75
6.4	The way forward: frames and structures for consultation and cooperation on human security	76
6.5	Final remarks: shaping the UN/CSO Partnership	77
6.6	List of measures to be taken	77
7.	HUMANITARIAN ADVOCACY CAMPAIGNS: LESSONS ON GOVERNMENT CIVIL-SOCIETY COLLABORATION	79
	D. Hubert, University of Ottawa
7.1	Campaign messaging	79
7.2	Mobilizing political will	81
7.3	Negotiating agreements	82
7.4	Monitoring implementation	83
7.5	Collaboration – Different phases, different modalities	85
8.	A MULTI-STAKEHOLDER PARTNERSHIP ON PEACEBUILDING	87
	P. van Tongeren, GPPAC
8.1	Multi-Stakeholder Partnerships and Global Action Networks	87
8.2	Phases, governance and impacts of GAN	90
8.3	Multi-stakeholder partnership and peacebuilding	91
8.4	GPPAC and a multi-stakeholder partnership	91
8.5	A Forum on Peacebuilding	92
8.6.	Global Summit on Conflict Prevention and Human Security	93
9.	FUNDING RELATIONS	95
	P. van Tongeren, GPPAC
9.1	Costs of conflict and of prevention, spending on related fields	95
9.2	Need for resourcing peacebuilding	95
9.3	Modalities	96
9.4	Supporting CSOs on peacebuilding	96
10.	REFLECTIONS	99
	P. van Tongeren, GPPAC	